

Procedures in pain medicine: How are they best done?

October 20, 2017

Program

9am	Welcome and outline of FPM strategic thinking regarding procedures in pain Dr Michael Vagg (Rehabilitation physician and specialist pain medicine physician, Geelong, Vic)	1.30pm	Potential for Big Data collection and use Dr Diarmuid McCoy (Anaesthetist and specialist pain medicine physician, Geelong, Vic) Professor John McNeil (Head, School of Public Health and Preventive Medicine, Monash University, Vic) Professor Kathy Eagar (ePPOC management advisory group, University of Wollongong, NSW) Discussion: 10 mins
9.30am	What interventions are we discussing and how are they done? Dr Geoff Speldewinde (Rehabilitation physician and specialist pain medicine physician, ACT)	2.20pm	Survey of current training/credentialing for procedures Dr Susan Lord (Specialist pain medicine physician, Newcastle, NSW) Associate Professor Andrew Zacest (Neurosurgeon and specialist pain medicine physician, Adelaide, SA) Dr Richard Sullivan (Specialist anaesthetist and specialist pain medicine physician, Melbourne, Vic) Dr Nicholas Christelis (Anaesthetist and specialist pain medicine physician, Melbourne, Vic)
10am	What are the current cost and efficacy debates within the field? Dr Marc Russo (Specialist pain medicine physician, Newcastle, NSW) Dr Sue Abhary (Clinical Director, Health Experience and Medical Research, Medibank Private, Vic) Discussion: 10 mins
10.45am	Morning tea
11am	What evidence do we need to generate? Professor Ted Shipton (Anaesthetist and specialist pain medicine physician, Christchurch, NZ) Adjunct Professor Tim Greenaway (Chief Medical Advisor, Health Products Regulation Group, ACT) Dr Lisa Sherry (Clinical Lead – Research Translation, Health & Disability Strategy Group, Transport Accident Commission and WorkSafe Victoria)	3pm	Proposal for FPM credentialing process Dr Michael Vagg Associate Professor Andrew Zacest Professor Ted Shipton
12pm	Wrap up and summary of morning discussion Dr Michael Vagg	4pm	Discussion and wrap up Dr Michael Vagg
12.30pm	Lunch
		4.30pm	Close